

Sample Site Plan – Drawn to Scale

The following sample drawing shows the minimum detail expected so the permit process can proceed smoothly. Plans do not need to be professionally drawn but should be drawn to scale and include all of the information requested. * If there are wetlands &/or a bluff on the property they must also be shown and setback measurements included*

